

COLLEGE MARKSMEN TO COMPETE.

NEW-HAVEN, Nov. 10.—The Captains of the Yale and Harvard Gun Clubs to-day arranged for the annual match between the two colleges. It will be held on the grounds of the Springfield (Mass.) Gun Club at 10 o'clock, Saturday, Nov. 19, the morning of the Yale-Harvard football game at that place. According to the conditions of the match agreed upon to-day by the management of the two clubs, Keystone rules will govern the contest and Keystone clay pigeons will be used. Each team will consist of five men, each of whom will try for thirty birds from one trap, at unknown angles. Yale has won this match three out of the four times it has been held.

SHOOT OF THE UNKNOWN CLUB.

The Unknown Gun Club had only half the usual number of shooters at Dexter Park, Long Island, yesterday. Only ten shot, under the club rules, gun below the elbow, H and T traps, 7 birds each. All the prizes were divided.

The scores: J. Sampson, 28 yards, 7; E. A. Vroome, 30 yards, 7; H. Knebel, 34 yards, 7; Dr. Little, 25 yards, 6; J. Vagts, 25 yards, 6; Von Staden, 23 yards, 5; A. P. Don, 25 yards, 5; Capt. Kolyer, 25 yards, 5; C. Miller, 23 yards, 5; J. Butler, 28 yards, 4.

In the sweepstakes, at 8 birds, miss and out, J. Butler and J. Sampson divided the first and Dr. Little killed 2 and won the second. Dr. Little and J. Butler divided a sweepstakes at 5 birds, each making a straight score.
