

YALE WON COLLEGE SHOOT.

Team of Five Scored 203 Kills in a Possible 250.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 17.—The fifth intercollegiate trap shoot was held here on Stockton Field to-day. Teams of five men each from Yale, Princeton, Harvard, and the University of Pennsylvania were entered. Yale won by killing 203 out of a possible 250; Princeton was second, with a score of 189; Harvard third, with 163, and Pennsylvania fourth, with 160. The weather conditions were excellent, with not the slightest breeze to disturb the contestants. Each man shot at fifty birds from the Mauga trap, ten at a time, at unknown angles; and on the rapid-fire system. Dupuy did the best shooting for Yale, Archer for Princeton, Mallinkrodt for Harvard, and Law for Pennsylvania. Scores:

TRAP SHOOTERS IN TRIPLE TIE.

Close Contest in Third Competition for Crescent A. C.'s Trophy.

A tie between three of the best trap shots of the Crescent Athletic Club occurred yesterday on the grounds of the Brooklyn organization at Owl's Head, Bay Ridge. This was in the contest for the November Cup, the third of which events was shot off. Edward Banks, Capt. J. N. Borland, who won last week's shoot, and Dr. J. J. Keyes were the leaders, and they made 47 kills each. The Trophy race was won by J. C. Faulkner, with a clean score with his handicap allowances. In the race between the bachelors and benedicts, six men to a team, for a trophy to be paid for by the losers, the benedicts won by a score of 105 to 84. Two extra sweepstake races were won by G. W. Hagedorn with 12 kills out of 15. In a ten-bird race Frank B. Stephenson, the baseball pitcher of amateur league fame, won with a straight score. There was a high wind blowing over the grounds from the bay.
