

YALE VICTOR AT TRAPS.

Princeton and Dartmouth Beaten in Intercollegiate Shoot.

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 23.—The intercollegiate trap shooting match held at Princeton today was won by Yale with a score of 366 out of a possible 500. Princeton and Dartmouth followed in the order named. Levin and Chisholm of Yale were individual high scores, each making 83 out of 100 targets. High wind held the scores down.

Matthews Wins at Billiards.

Charles H. Matthews easily defeated Charles Worcester last night in the amateur handicap 15.2 balk-line billiard tournament at the Knickerbocker Billiard Academy in Brooklyn, by the score of 200 to 93. Matthews was in excellent form and, although he was handicapped at the start of the contest in having to concede fifteen points to his opponent, he played consistently from the beginning of the game and maintained the lead until the finish. He ran out his string of 200 points in thirty-three innings, making high runs of 31 twice, with an average of 62-33. Worcester, who had only to score 185 points to win, had high runs of 19, 11, and 10, with an average of 22-32. Tomorrow night Dr. H. D. Jennings will attempt to score 215 points before Claude R. Lewis can tally 185.

Callahan Wins Central Park Run.

Boys' High School triumphed over the High School of Commerce in the dual run over the Central Park course yesterday afternoon by the score of 22 to 26. R. Green of Boys' and H. Callahan of Commerce were at the front from the start of the race, and there were spirited sprints between the two students for the lead, Callahan going ahead near the finish and completing the distance in 14:06. Green was second in 14:18.
